INDEX TO VOLUME 19, 1954

Journal of Speech and Hearing Disorders

Abstracts. 95-103, 265-268, 385-387, 532-534

Actor and singer, Voice problems of the (F. S. Brodnitz) 322-326

Adams, H. M. and P. J. Glasner. Emotional involvements in some forms of mutism. 59-69

Adaptation and recovery of the stuttering response in self-formulated speech, A study of (P. W. Newman) 450-458

Adaptation, Relations of stuttering in spontaneous speech to speech content and to (W. E. Moore) 208-216

Adaptation effect and its relation to thoracic breathing in stutterers and non-stutterers, The (H. B. Starbuck and M. D. Steer) 440-449

Adapter for variable side-tone delay, A simple mechanical (W. R. Tiffany, C. N. Hanley and L. C. Sutherland) 504-506

Ainsworth, S. See Lloyd, G. W.

American Speech and Hearing Association

- Speech correction fund: Objectives, policies and operating procedures. 258-260

Analysis of an exceptional case of retarded speech, An (G. O. Egland) 239-243

Anderson, J. O. Bibliography on esophageal speech. 70-72

Aphasia, Modern linguistics and recovery from (M. H. Scargill) 507-513

Articulation exercises, A study of the effectiveness of recorded (A. Holbrook) 14-16

Articulatory defects of children with no known organic impairment, The relationship of auditory discrimination to (E. L. Kronvall and C. F. Diehl) 335-338

Aspiration levels of deaf children as compared with those of hearing children (L. Rutledge) 375-380

Attitudes relating to speech correction, The classroom teacher's activities and (G. W. Lloyd and S. Ainsworth) 244-249

Audibility-recognition sound pressure functions of the voiced cognate consonants (G. C. Tolhurst) 28-36

Auditory discrimination, The relationship of, to articulatory defects of children with no known organic impairment (E. L. Kronvall and C. F. Diehl) 335-338

Auditory sensitivity, Some basic consideration in applying the GSR technique to the measurement of (K. C. Stewart) 174-183

Auditory testing, An investigation into the use of electro-mechanically delayed side tone in (C. N. Hanley and W. R. Tiffany) 367-374

Backward playing of connected speech in the scaling of voice quality disorders, The merits of (D. Sherman) 312-321

Bibliography on esophageal speech (J. O. Anderson) 70-72

Black, J. W. The information of sounds and phonetic digrams of one- and two-syllable words. 397-411

Systematic research in experimental phonetics: 2. Signal reception: Intelligibility and side-tone. 140-146
